Answer Key

Chapter 9

Chapter Test A

Part 1: Main Idea

1. c
2. b
3. a
4. c
5. d
6. b
7. c
8. d
9. c
10. a
11. c
12. a
13. b
14. d
15. c

Part 2: Interpreting Charts

16. d
17. a
18. a
19. a
20. c

Part 3: Extended Response

21. Students should mention the influence of human capital, working conditions, discrimination, and government actions and give examples for each.

22. When companies outsource jobs, they often also add more jobs in the United States. These jobs, though, may be in different parts of the company than the outsourced jobs. With insourcing, foreign companies establish operations in, and therefore bring jobs to, the United States.

Copyright by McDougal Littell, a division of Houghton Mifflin Company