Social Studies 6
Chapter 5 – AK

Section 1

Page 139

1.
    a. Mountains cover Japan and the Korean Peninsula.
    b. Student comparisons should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
2.
    a. The northern parts of the region have a humid continental climate - summers are cool, winters are long and cold. The southern region has a humid subtropical climate with mild winters and hot, humid summers.
    b. Japan's productive fisheries have made it's fish markets some of the busiest in the world.
3. Student charts should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.

eSchool Consultants

Section 2

Page 145

1.
    a. Shoguns were the generals who ruled Japan in the emperor's name.
    b. The Americans dropped atomic bombs on two Japanese cities, Hiroshima and Nagasaki.
2.
    a. Many Japanese wear kimonos on special occasions. However, most of the time, people in Japan wear Western-style clothing.
    b. Most people in Japan blend elements of two religions - Shinto and Buddhism. Both religions date back to the early history of Japan.
3.
    a. Kimchi is a traditional Korean food made from pickled cabbage and spices.
    b. The differences between modern culture in North and South Korea have come as a result of the Korean war dividing the two nations.
4. Student charts should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.

Section 3

Page 151

1.
    a. Japanese companies are among the world's leading manufacturers of televisions, DVD players, CD players and other electronic items.
    b. Since the end of World War II, Japan's government has been a constitutional monarchy headed by an emperor.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
2.
    a. People have found creative ways to adapt to limited space - buildings tend to be fairly tall and narrow and space under ground is used.
    b. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
3.
    a. So many people commute to and from Tokyo that trains are very crowded.
    b. Recently, other countries, like China and South Korea, have begun to take business away from some Japanese companies.
4. Student charts should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.

Section 4

Page 156

1.
    a. The demilitarized zone is an empty buffer zone created to keep two countries from fighting.
    b. The United States has helped make South Korea's one of the strongest in East Asia. In addition, Korean business leaders and government officials have worked to ensure that the economy stays strong.
2.
    a. Pyongyang is the capital of North Korea. North Korea is much poorer than Japan and North Korea - factories use out of date technology, there is little traffic or commercial development.
    b. North Korea's government is Communist and is ruled by a dictator.
3.
    a. Many people call for Korean reunification as both countries share a common history and culture.
    b. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
4. Student charts should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.

Chapter Review

Pages 157 - 158

Note: Answers to #1 - 12 will be crossword clues written in the students own words and should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.

1. Tokyo
2. abstract
3. trade surplus
4. tariff
5. kimono
6. efficient
7. work ethic
8. Seoul
9. fishery
10. Pyongyang
11. kimchi
12. policy
13.
    a. Mountains cover Japan and the Korean peninsula. Japan's highest mountain, Fuji, is an example.
    b. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
14.
    a. A shogun is a general who ruled Japan in the emperor's name. The shogun lead an armies of samurai.
    b. The Korean War was caused by the Communists of the North attacking the South. The war resulted in two separate countries being formed.
    c. Student answers should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.
15.
    a. The most important aspect of Japan's economy is the close work between the government and business leaders.
    b. Tokyo is the national capital of Japan and also the center of the country's banking and communications industries.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.

16.
    a. South Korea is a republic and North Korea is communist dictatorship.
    b. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the text.
17. The contour lines show 500 and 1000 feet.
18. The highest point is Mount Yuzuruha as it is labeled 1995 ft.
19. Sumoto is located at less than 500 feet above sea level.
20. opinion
21. fact
22. opinion
23. opinion
24. Student poems should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.
25. Student comparisons should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.
26.
    a. Tokyo, Japan
    b. South Korea
    c. Hokkaido
    d. North Korea
    e. Sea of Japan (East Sea)
    f. Korea Strait

Standardized Test Practice

Page 159

1. C
2. B
3. B
4. C
5. D
6. A
7. C
8. Student paragraphs should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the material in the reading.

eSchool Consultants