Social Studies 8
Chapter 4 – AK

Section 2

Page 118
This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the Section 2 text.

Page 119
William believed that all laws should be obeyed unless repealed - while Benjamin did not believe that the British Parliament could pass laws for the colonies.

Page 120
This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the Section 2 text.

Page 120
This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the Section 1 text.

Page 121
The Declaration of Independence did not address the rights of women, enslaved Africans or Native Americans.

Section Assessment - Page 121

1.
    a. Thomas Paine was a American political philosopher and author, he urged an immediate declaration of independence from England in his anonymously and simply written pamphlet, Common Sense.
    b. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the Section 2 text.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the Section 2 text.

eSchool Consultants

2.
    a. The colonists were split into Patriots - those that supported the Declaration of Independence, and Loyalists - those that chose to side with the British.
    b. The supporters of the Declaration argued that all people possess unalienable rights to life, liberty and pursuit of happiness. Also, they accused the kind of unfair taxes and laws that interfered with the colonial government.
    c. This question is a matter of personal opinion and therefore there is no set answer. Student answers should be well written and should articulately explain his or her choice in a well-supported, concise paragraph that appropriately references the Section 2 text.
3.
    a. Abigail Adams encouraged her husband, John Adams, to "Remember the Ladies."
    b. Student answers should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the geographical and historical material in Section 2.

4. Student graphic organizers should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the geographical and historical material in Section 2.

5. Student ideas should be well conceived and should reflect a knowledge and appropriate application of the geographical and historical material in Section 2.